About Prairie Arabian Working Western & Sport Horse Association (PAWWSHA)

We are a non-profit association made up of equine enthusiasts who have been successfully showing, breeding, and training horses – both Arabian and non-Arabian – for a number of years. By forming this new association, we aim to provide an additional opportunity for individuals, trainers, and general equine enthusiasts in the prairie provinces of Saskatchewan and Manitoba to showcase their Arabian and non-Arabian horse(s) in competition geared toward the athleticism of the Working Western and Sport Horse disciplines, including Dressage, Sport Horse, Reining, Trail, and Horsemanship. PAWWSHA's primary goal is inclusivity and opportunity for all levels of exhibitors. We aim to promote a healthy, active lifestyle with equines of all breeds in a variety of working disciplines.

Arabian & Half-Arabian Class List

- When entering the show, competitors have the option of all classes listed. However, due to time constraints, the total number of patterns / tests / classes run will be limited. Entries are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis and competitors will be notified if they are wait-listed. This ordering of classes is tentative and may change pending entries. Every effort will be made to accommodate horses and riders who are showing in both rings; back-to-back classes will be avoided. All classes will run using ride-time scheduling.
- Arabian and Half-Arabians are also eligible for open breed classes, including youth lead-line and the Fun Costume!
